NEW YORK, October 21.—(By wire.) Friends of the family in this city met at the Church of Zion and St. Timothy today to pay tribute to the memory of Mrs. Jefferson Davis. A service was jointly by the congregation of which Mr. Davis was long a member, and the New York Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, was conducted by the Rev. Dr. H. H. Hays, the pastor, who also delivered the eulogy.

Dr. George Baker, of the same parish, and Rev. Nathan Sewall, of St. Stephen's Church, assisted in the services.

Dr. J. L. WELDON, upon the death and funeral of Mrs. W. M. WELDON, connected to Mr. WELDON, and the attractive personal qualities that appealed to all with whom he came in contact. He said that the death of a person so full of life and so full of interest with all the activities represented at the service. In his life he had been a man of many interests, a devoted husband, and how bravely he had borne more than a woman's part.

Among those present were several relatives of Mr. WELDON, including Mr. and Mrs. Addison Hayes, of Colorado; Mrs. James Henry Barker, president of the New York Chapter, Daughters of the Confederate Army; Mrs. L. E. Lacey Brown, Mrs. Charles Goldsmith, and Mrs. John Phillips.
